9th Triennial Circle General Council Meeting A Grand Success

As notified by this office, the 9th Triennial Circle General Council Meeting of the State Bank of India Staff Association, North Eastern Circle was held at Guwahati on 28th & 29th January, 2017. The Reception Committee formed for hosting the Circle General Council by Units/members of offices/branches of greater Guwahati made an excellent arrangement for smooth and successful conduct of the event. The venue of the meeting, the Gauhati Medical College Auditorium was beautifully decorated to give it a festive look during the Circle General Council Meeting.

The event started with hoisting of the Association's Flag by Com. Debasis Chakraborty, President of the State Bank of India Staff Association, North Eastern Circle in presence of All India leadership of All India State Bank of India Staff Federation. The open session of the Circle General Council got underway at 2.30 P.M. with a chorus presented by SBI staff of greater Guwahati branches/offices followed by a programme showcasing the rich cultural heritage of the North East conducted by the renowned artist Smti.Jina Rajkumari.

Com. Debasis Chakraborty, President of the Circle Association, presided over the session. The distinguished leaders and guests were welcomed onto the dais and offered warm felicitation by Com. Debasis Chakraborty, Circle President and Com. Pradip Kumar Baishya, General Secretary of the Circle Association. At the outset, a befitting welcome address was presented by the Chairman of the Reception Committee, Com. Shymanta Konwar.

Com. Sanjeev K. Bandlish, General Secretary of All India State Bank of India Staff Federation & National Confederation of Bank Employees, inaugurated the open session by lighting the ceremonial lamp. Shri P.V.S.L.N. Murty, Hon'ble Chief General Manager of State Bank of India, North Eastern Circle was the chief guest on the occasion. After the inauguration, in his opening speech, Com. Pradip Kumar Baishya, General Secretary, State Bank of India Staff Association, North Eastern Circle, welcomed all the dignitaries as well as the delegates, observers and guests and raised some major issues confronting the banking industry. Com. VVSR Sharma, President, AISBISF, Com. Sanjeev K. Bandlish, General Secretary, AISBISF and NCBE, Com. Siddhartha Khan, Sr. Vice President, AISBISF were the distinguished speakers representing the Federation. Their valued deliberations delved in various issues confronting the employees which generated tremendous enthusiasm amongst the audience and shall leave a lasting impact in the hearts and minds of the people present on the occasion. Com. J.B. Mahapatra, Chief Secretary, SBISA had also deliberated on the occasion. The distinguished speakers, leaders of the workmen and officers' movements in the Bank, expressed their grave concerns about the fall-out of the neo-liberal economic policy on the banking industry. The Centre's policy of allowing FDI in banking industry along with its bid to reduce government stake in PSU banks, paving the way for eventual privatization of PSU banks, also received sharp criticisms from the participants. Issues like lack of proper recruitment in banks and large corporate debts, etc., also came out in the deliberations of the speakers. Shri Murty, Hon'ble Chief General Manager of SBI, N.E. Circle, in his address, appreciated all employees of the bank for their dedicated service to the nation. He also urged upon the employees of the Bank to equip themselves to face the ever evolving challenges in the Banking Industry and to offer their best of efforts to retain the glory of our Bank and its number one position. Com. Rupam Roy, General Secretary of SBI Officers' Association, North Eastern Circle, stressed the need for the young generation to get actively involved in the trade union activities for their own benefits. He also emphasized human values and dignity in the working environment of the employees. Com. Bhupen Chandra Kalita, General Secretary of SBI Pensioners' Association, elaborated upon the significance and importance of the trade union movement in the banking industry.

During the event, a colourful Souvenir marking the 9th Triennial General Council Meeting of SBISA, N.E. Circle was released by Com. V.V.S.R. Sharma, President, All India SBI Staff Federation.

Com. Debasis Chakraborty, Circle President who retired from Bank's service on 31st January, 2017 was given a befitting farewell during the event. He was felicitated by the Circle Association as well as the leaders representing various Circles who were present on the occasion, including a standing ovation by the august house.

The vote of thanks was offered by Com. Dibakar Chakraborty, Assistant General Secretary (HQ) of SBI Staff Association, North Eastern Circle.

The Delegate Session of the 9th Triennial Circle General Council Meeting of State Bank of India Staff Association, North Eastern Circle, started at 11.00 A.M. on the 29th January, 2017 with Com. Debasis Chakraborty, Circle President on the Chair. Secretarial Report and Statements of Accounts were presented by Com. Pradip Kumar Baishya and Com. Jagadish Dutta, General Secretary & Circle Treasurer respectively. Altogether 24 Delegates participated in the discussion on the Secretarial Report of the General Secretary and offered a number of suggestions. The remarkable aspect was the attendance of new generation members and specially lady comrades in large numbers in the delegate session and their refreshing participation in the deliberations. While summing up the discussion, the General Secretary offered a detailed picture of contentious issues that have been taken up and being pursued genuinely by the Circle Association and the Federation for suitable redressal. The Report of the General Secretary and the Audited Statements of Accounts, placed before the Delegate Session of the 9th Triennial Circle General Council, were unanimously approved by the House.

A number of Resolutions on issues confronting the employees were adopted in the Delegate Session. The Delegate Session of the Circle General Council elected the under named office bearers for the next triennial term unanimously to run the affairs of the Circle Association.

The Circle Committee of our beloved Association expresses pleasure in placing on records its deep appreciation for the dedicated and strenuous services extended by the Reception Committee of the 9th Triennial Circle General Council Meeting under the leadership of Com. Shyamanta Konwar, Chairman and Com. Lakshmi Dhar Boro, Secretary for holding the event successfully and to the satisfaction of all.
